BORROW'S GRAND VICTORY

TAKES THE RICH KENTUCKY HANDICAP IN EASY FASHION ON A SLOW TRACK.

Roamer Shows the Most Speed for a Mile, but Tires in the Going-Remarkable Attendance Views the Big Race

the Big Race.

Louisville, Ky., May 29.—Borrow, recently leased to L. S. Thompson by Harry Payne Whitney, trained by James Rowe and ridden by the veteran Joe Notter, accounted for the $11,700 winner's net portion of the Kentucky Handicap, America's foremost prize of this year for mature racers at Jouglas Park this afternoon. Hodge, under strenuous urging overtook and beat Prince Hermis for the $15.500 that constituted second money, Emerson, Cochran, coming with a rush, saved his stake of $200 by finishing fourth.

The outstanding disappointment of the race was Roamer. He was asked to essay a herculean task and, good little horse that he is, it proved too much for him. He succumbed after showing the others the way for almost a mile of the race. The heavy going militated against him as well as short Grass, more than did the steadying impost each carried. The high regard in which the Miller representative is held was reflected in the betting, for he was at all times a strong favorite, with Hodge and Short Grass next in demand and scant support for Borrow, due mainly to the fact that his trainer was not at all convinced that he could run well in the difficult going. Notter rode him in exceptionally good fashion, kept him in a forwardly position in the early running and sent him to the front when a good opening presented itself on the stretch turn. Ranged alongside the others they seemed pygmies in comparison, and his size and sturdlness was a factor in his success. Of those behind the leaders, Emerson Cochran made a splendid showing and under a better judged ride Royal II. would have been closer up. Short Grass tired perceptibly in the stretch, contrary to his usual style of going best at this stage. Ringling was a sufferer from repeated interference.

Black and threatening weather undoubtedly affected the Douglas Park patronage greatly today. The crowd under the circumstances was a remarkably big one and taxed the spacious plant. The reserved section and three through it. The volume of speculation was the largest third.

E. R. Bradley's filly Browneyed Kate romped home in advance of those opposed to her in the fifth. Big Dipper showed improved form to win by a neck in the opener, and lugot won the second by the same margin. Dr. Carmen just lasted lasted long enough to beat Broom Flower in the third. Korflage was an overwhelming choice in this race, but any chance he may have had was ruined by inferior riding.

Buffalo, N. Y., May 29.—Visitors to the Fort Erie race track next summer will be greatly surprised at the changed aspect of the place. The finishing touches are just now being put to a transformation which has been in progress practically continuously since the close of the second summer meeting last year. As it stands today the course is one of the most complete and beautiful racing plants in the country and in some respects there probably is not another track on the continent which will be found to be so well equipped. The meessity of providing for the installation of parimutuel betting machines has created the improvements, some of which were much in need in other years and others of which have been made in anticipation of public demand.

The great change has been effected in the preparations for the installation of the betting machines, which will occup hundreds of feet of space. The cashier booths included, there will be thirty of these machines providing for all classes of wagers from $2$ up and several will combine straight, place and show betting. Probably no track in America is better fitted for the machine system of betting.

THE FINN TAKES THE WITHERS STAKES.

Defeats Sharpshooter with Ease-Norse King Furnishes a Surprise-Betting Investigation On.

New York, May 29.—Assuming the lead with the rise of the barrier, H. C. Hallenbeck's good three-year-old, The Finn, triumphed over Sharpshooter in the fortieth running of the Withers Stakes at Belmont Park today. Sharpshooter was installed favorite at odds on, with The Finn second choice. The winner showed by his performance that he must be reckoned a factor in races with the best of the three-year-old division from now on, as he carried his impost of 118 pounds easily and, after setting a fast pace, was cased up at the end of a mile run in 1:39%. The race was worth $1,425 net. Sharpshooter ran in strenuous pursuit of the winner throughout, but could never get into a contending position. He made a determined effort in the final eighth, but fell back beaten. Half Rock was third. The Amateur Cup attracted a good field and resulted in a good race. Doublet, coupled with Cloud as the A. L. Kramer entry, was returned the winner. Mr. J. Tucker brought him up with a rush on the outside in the final eighth. Ambrose set the pace until in the stretch, where he was passed by the three placed horses, Virile, the favorite, was away poorly and then rushed into a contending position on the outside, where he tired after being in pursuit of the pacemaker for some distance. Norse King furnished a great surprise when he beat Top Hat and Addie M. in the second race. The winner was quoted at liberal odds.

distance. Norse King furnished a great surprise when he beat Top Hat and Addie M. in the second race. The winner was quoted at liberal odds. V. Carroll has sold to Larry Carey the two-year-old Tribolo, which was a winner Friday, for $1,000. Carroll will leave for California shortly and will return to Belmont Park in the fall with a carload of the Spreckels' yearlings to be offered for sale.

Mission will start in the Grand National Steeple-chase Monday and has worked well for the race.

Jockey C. Turner will leave for Montreal Monday night to rejoin his contract employer, J. S. Tyree. Turner will have the mount on Stromboli in the Toboggan at Belmont Park Monday.

The steeplechase resulted in a driving finish between Swish and Syosset, with the former winning by less than a length. Both horses had been well backed.

The investigation into alleged violation of the anti-bookmaking laws was begun before Justice Scudder this morning. The principal witnesses examined were the special writers of a New York paper, which has been bitterly assailing racing. Their testimony tended to discredit their articles. No finding is looked for before Monday.

V. E. Schaumherg, former secretary of the Coney Island Jockey Club, will serve as secretary of the Empire City Racing Association's meeting this year. It has not yet been fully decided where the meeting will be held—at Aqueduct or Jannaica. The Suburban Handicap will be renewed under the auspices of this association.

Toronto, Ont., May 29.—The closing day of the output of the seven races on the program were stakes. The outstanding feature was the Toronto output on driving finish, beat Bryndown a head. The William Hendric Memorial Handicap for Canadian-bred three-year-olds went to Amphion, an outsider in the betting.

Balfron, whose last race was a poor one, furnished another surprise when he won the closing dash in a canter. A report that he had spread his foot was responsible for the lack of support accorded him. The race was a selling affair and when Sam Louis raised him $200 over his entered price of $400, James Arthur let him go.

E. J. Baxter, assistant secretary of the Windsor Jockey Club, returned to Detroit tonight. All applications for stabling there should be addressed to Mr. Baxter.

Albert Simons, who is here with Slumber II., has engaged eighteen stalls at Windsor for Harry Payne Whitney's string. Simons will ship them from Belmont Park to Hamilton.

The report emanating from Kentucky that jockey D. Connelly had been granted a license to ride free lance is unfounded. The Canadian Racing Associations have refused to reopen Connelly's case and there has been no action aside from that taken in Montreal last fall.

No unnecessary chances will be taken and we want to get a fair price against this horse, which will start either Tuesday or Wednesday. Let me hear from you today, if you wish me to send you telegram day of starting and tell me what you will do and stick to your word. It will lead to more of the same kind, and it is up to you to decide whether you want my services in the future. Address A. C. ELY, Childs' Bldg., New York, N. Y. I can give you is to become a UNIT player just as quickly as you can get to a letter box to drop me your name and address. Don't you think it poor judgment on the part of any player to hesitate when he is offered a good thing free of charge? If I were to advertise that I would give away a $50-bill to every person who wrote, don't you think you would? Well, THE UNIT, which I send you Free of Charge, is the $50-system I trust you with for thirty days. I give you a chance to get acquainted with one of the simplest and grandest propositions you ever heard about without one cent in advance. I demonstrate to your own personal satisfaction that I have the Real Thing—or it costs you nothing. Just consider my proposition for a minute: What have you to lose? A -two-cent stamp will bring the system to You Free—Then test it at my expense. After you are sure its the Right Kind of a System; then send me my money—its there with the goods—Takes just ten handbook or poolroom with small or large capital. In fact, its just the thing for the Tip Player—Gives him One Best Bet—A chance for a Plunge Play. In fact, I can't say too much about it. You had better write today and get a copy Free—and let me show you what you have missed—The man who plays information is the one who needs THE UNIT, too. My method assures an income—Get busy.
